Adviser profile

Megan has worked in the Financial Services industry for the past 11 years and made her career move in July 2008 to specialise in personal risk insurance. Since then she has been providing quality personal risk advice to clients of Prescott Securities as a Personal Risk Adviser in the following areas:

- Income Protection cover
- Trauma cover
- Life cover
- Total & Permanent Disablement cover
- Business Expense cover
- Business insurance cover

She has an Economics Degree and a Graduate Certificate in Financial Planning.

Megan acts for clients in all personal insurance considerations and does not have any allegiances with any insurance company. She works closely with her clients to ensure that they have a complete personal insurance portfolio that suits their needs and objectives.

She has gained extensive knowledge and experience with personal insurance claims over the years whilst working within the industry. Megan will assist clients at the time of being insured and most importantly should a claim be needed, will assist at that time to ensure the claim process is as smooth and hassle free as possible.
